We're now going to show you a pair of statements, please state which statement you agree with most.

A – It is better if a major political party puts forward policies that allow it to win an election and put them into practice, even if it means compromising on some of their policies

B – It is better if a major political party puts forward policies it really believes in, even if the policies are unpopular and prevent the party from winning an election

We're now going to show you a pair of statements, please state which statement you agree with most.

A – It is better if a major political party puts forward policies that allow it to win an election and put them into practice, even if it means compromising on some of their policies

B – It is better if a major political party puts forward policies it really believes in, even if the policies are unpopular and prevent the party from winning an election
