Thinking about the proposal to freeze gas and electricity prices for up to two years, some energy companies say this could do more harm than good, and lead to power cuts as the companies may not be able to afford to spend as much maintaining and investing in energy supplies.

Do you think there is a serious danger that a price freeze could lead to power cuts?

Yes, a price freeze would increase the risk of power cuts
No, the energy companies are bluffing
Don't know
