The following questions about items of dress worn by Muslim women so they can dress modestly in front of men who are not their close relatives.

The Hijab normally refers to a headscarf, used to cover the hair and shoulders, but not the face.

The Niqab normally refers to a veil used to cover the face except the eyes, and often worn in conjunction with a hijab.

The Burqa normally refers to a cloak used to cover the entire body, including the face, sometimes with just a grill to see through.

Would you support or oppose a ban on wearing the hijab (a headscarf covering the hair) in Britain?
