The minimum wage is the legal minimum that employers have to pay, currently £6.50 an hour for over 21s. It is against the law to pay someone less than this.

The living wage is a higher figure of £7.85 an hour outside London which campaigners say is the basic amount people need to live on, and which companies are encouraged to pay.

Do you think companies currently do enough to pay people the living wage?

Yes, they do - where they can afford it most companies do pay the living wage	14	20	8	12	17	16	12	15	17	13	13	16	11	15	16	12	13	13	14	18	13

The government appointed an independent commission to look at how to increase airport capacity in the South-East. This will not report until later in 2015.

Which of the following best reflects your view?

Putting off the decision to 2015 was just dithering, a decision on what to do about airport capacity should have been taken much sooner	35	37	36	37	41	46	25	34	35	31	41	38	32	42	37	32	33	34	36	56	22

Thinking about the type of programmes that the BBC makes, which of the following best reflects your view?

The BBC should concentrate on public service programmes that might not get made by commercial channels, such as news, documentaries and educational programmes	36	38	36	49	27	40	32	40	42	35	32	42	29	39	40	34	32	37	36	42	38

The BBC charter setting out how it is run is due for renewal next year.

Currently the BBC is overseen by the independent BBC Trust, who set the corporation's direction, represent the views of licence payers and also look into complaints against the BBC.

Do you think the BBC Trust should be kept, or do you think it should be scrapped and the BBC regulated by OfCom instead?

The BBC Trust should be kept, and continue to oversee the BBC	29	27	33	47	21	29	29	38	26	25	32	35	21	32	33	27	27	18	30	31	33

And thinking about the level of the BBC licence fee for the next five years, what would you like to see happen?

The level of the licence fee should be increased above inflation to give the BBC more money to spend	3	3	5	5	1	4	3	3	4	4	3	4	2	5	4	1	3	4	3	4	4
The level of the licence fee should be increased in line with inflation, so after inflation the BBC has the same amount	29	27	32	49	17	31	26	39	24	27	31	33	23	26	35	30	24	18	30	34	25

The level of the licence fee should be reduced, so the BBC has substantially less money to spend	29	33	22	13	46	30	28	17	28	32	31	26	33	30	27	29	27	38	28	28	35
