Thinking about British citizens who break the law in foreign countries, which of the following best reflects your view?

If British people break the law in foreign countries they should face punishment under that country's laws, even if it would not have been a crime in Britain or the punishments are much harsher than they would have received in Britain

If British people break the law in foreign countries and receive much harsher punishments than they would have done in Britain then the British government should do what it can to have their sentences reduced or have them returned to
