The government have released the post-mortem reports into the death of Dr David Kelly, which says his wounds were typical of self-inflicted injury. Lord Hutton had previously ordered the report to remain secret so as not to further distress Dr Kelly's family, but the government decided to publish it in response to public concerns over the inquiry into his death.

Do you think it was right or wrong to publish the details of Dr Kelly's postmortem?

Right	58	71	55	66	63	53	35	50	62	70	60	55	53	60	59	58	56
