The Inland Revenue have announced that they have taken too little tax from 1.4 million people. Do you think people affected should or should not have to pay back the shortfall?

Should - it may not have been their fault it wasn't paid at the time, but everyone should pay their full share of tax	28	34	28	22	33	23	22	29	25	32	33	21	33	27	26	27	31
Should not - it was the Inland Revenue's fault, and it would not be fair to leave people with large backpayments	65	61	68	68	61	69	61	62	70	62	62	69	63	64	66	68	58
