George Osborne, the Chancellor of the Exchequer, has unveiled his first Budget. He announced cuts in spending and increases in taxes, in order to reduce government borrowing.

June 20-21

June 22-23

Do you think...

It's the right time to cut borrowing sharply, so Britain's economy can recover

41

48

It's the wrong time: higher taxes and lower spending this year could drive Britain back into recession

Spending on the NHS and international development is being protected from spending cuts. As a result, cuts in other government departments will have to be deeper in order to achieve the overall target for spending cuts.

Do you think it is right or wrong to protect spending on the NHS, if this means deeper cuts elsewhere?

Right - its budget should be protected

62

67

Wrong - it should face its share of spending cuts
