Claims have emerged that milk is on sale in Britain from cloned cows. Using cloned cows for meat or milk in the UK would be illegal without permission from the European Food Safety Authority, and currently there have not been any applications. However, in the USA it has been cleared as safe to eat. If it had been approved by the food safety authorities, would you personally be happy to eat food from cloned animals?

Yes I would	34	38	35	43	45	23	39	33	33	33	36	32	30	37	33	31	39
