Ian Brady murdered five children in the 1960s, commonly known as the Moors Murders. He was sentenced to life imprisonment and will never be released from prison. In 1985 he was ruled to be insane and sent to a high security psychiatric hospital where he remains.

Ian Brady has said he does not wish to be released and wishes to commit suicide. Since 1999 he has been on hunger strike in an attempt to kill himself, but as he is considered to be mentally ill he has been force fed to keep him alive.
