25. Background Checks

Background checks for several of Donald Trump's cabinet appointees have not yet been completed. Which statement do you agree with most? (A) The Senate should only hold confirmation hearings after all background checks have been completed on an appointee.; (B) The Senate should hold confirmation hearings right away, but wait to vote on the appointment until the background checks have been completed.; (C) The Senate should hold confirmation hearings right away and vote on the appointment right away, regardless of the status of an appointee's background checks.; (D) Not sure
