

1. Acceptable Use

Below is a transcript of something President Obama said in a recent radio interview after being asked about race relations in America.

"I always tell young people in particular, do not say that nothing's changed when it comes to race in America unless you lived through being a black man in the 1950s, or '60s, or '70s. What is also true is that the legacy of slavery, Jim Crow, discrimination in almost every institution of our lives: that casts a long shadow. And that's still part of our DNA. That's passed on. We're not cured of it—racism. We're not cured of it. And it's not just a matter of it not being polite to say n—r in public."

Do you think it is acceptable or unacceptable for President Obama to use the n-word in this way?
